12.01.2026

Present: Sh. Ravi Swami, Adv. for the Appellant Society.

Respondent in person and Sh. Sameer Diwan, Adv. appears through VC.

Sh. Swami prays for adjournment on the ground that the previous counsel has not handed over the paper book to the society or to the new counsel. He therefore, prays for adjournment. However, adjournment is strongly opposed by Sh. Sameer Diwan, counsel for the respondent on the ground that appellant society is deliberately delaying the appeal.

Sh. Swami had entered appearance and filed Vakalatnama on 30.10.2025 and had not mentioned that he is not possessed of the paper book. On the adjourned date, he had chosen not to appear and then, Court notice was issued to him to procure his presence. It was made clear that this shall be the last opportunity to address arguments. Today again, a request is made.

We find the prayer for adjournment to be totally unjustified. However, in the interest of justice, one adjournment is allowed subject to costs of Rs. 20,000/- payable to the respondent. In case, on the adjourned date, arguments are not address by the appellant, Tribunal shall be constrained to hear the respondent and go through the paper book itself and pass the orders.

Adjourned to 20.04.2026

Costs of Rs. 20,000/- shall be paid by the appellant society to Respondent Sh. Anil Chopra on or before the adjourned date.
